

NADEAU

Family Vintners

2009 Grenache

The Winery

Nadeau Family Vintners is the result of years of effort by Robert Nadeau and his wife, Patrice. Together they renovated a tiny barn in the mountains west of Paso Robles, transforming it into an efficient, well-equipped micro-winery. Old-world styled vineyards have been planted on the slopes surrounding the building...most of the planting is dedicated to dry-farmed, head-trained Zinfandel, with an acre or so devoted to Grenache Noir and Petite Sirah. Situated at the top of Peachy Canyon, the property is generally above the morning fog and usually receives about twice the rainfall seen below in Paso Robles.

The Wine

The red wines of the southern Rhone Valley inspired the Nadeau Family Vintners' 2009 Grenache. The grapes for the Grenache came from vineyards on the cooler "west-side" of the Paso Robles appellation.

French oak barrel-aging has lent the 2009 Grenache lovely, soft oak tannins accompanied by subtle toasty-oak nuances. This wine will continue to develop wonderful bottle bouquet over the next few years.

Serve this medium-bodied wine with spicy and moderately hearty fare. This Grenache suits freshly grilled veggies, lamb, mild sausage (from the grill) as well as a variety of cheeses, etc. Eggplant Parmesan would certainly be a great match!

The Blend

100% Grenache

The Vital Statistics

100% Paso Robles Appellation

100% 2009 Vintage

Harvest date: September 22, 2009

Finished Wine EtOH: 14.1% By Vol.

The two cuvees were fermented individually in open-top fermentors with commercial (proprietary) yeast. These grapes were fermented for 9 days on their skins, then pressed in a small, horizontal basket-press.

The 2009 Vintage yielded just 80 cases.
