

NADEAU

Family Vintners

2013 Zinfandel Late Harvest Paso Robles

The Winery

Nadeau Family Vintners is the result of years of effort by Robert Nadeau and his wife, Patrice. Together they renovated a tiny barn in the mountains west of Paso Robles, transforming it into an efficient, well-equipped micro-winery. Old-world styled vineyards have been planted on the slopes surrounding the building...most of the planting is dedicated to dry-farmed, head-trained Zinfandel, with an acre or so devoted to Grenache Noir and Petite Sirah. Situated at the top of Peachy Canyon, the property is generally above the morning fog and usually receives about twice the rainfall seen below in Paso Robles.

The Wine

The Nadeau Family Vintners' 2013 "Late Harvest" Zinfandel is a deep, dense, almost brooding wine. Its dark color invites the taster to experience the abundant Black Cherry and Raspberry aromas. The first sip reveals a dense yet lush, fruity wine with plenty of residual sugar to complement any chocolate dessert as well as strong cheeses, fine cigars, and stimulating conversation.

This wine is ready to drink now, so break out your favorite dessert and enjoy!

The grapes were fermented in small, open-top fermentors with commercial (proprietary) yeast for 9 days on their skins then pressed in a small, state-of-the-art pneumatic bladder press. This wine was racked using a nitrogen blanket and/or gravity. Aged in one American Oak barrel until it was racked, filtered and bottled unfined.

The 2013 Vintage yielded 50 cases of 375 ml bottles.
